

RF-RX-CS2

2 Bay Charging Station for RF Transmitter/Receiver

CONTACTA RADIO FREQUENCY

The Contacta 2 Bay Charging Station is for use with the Portable RF Transmitter (RF-TX1) and the Portable RF Receiver (RF-RX1), which holds two units in a standing position.

The Charging Station is a convenient device to store and charge the RF devices when they are not in use, keeping them ready for the next application.

For additional storage and charging capability, a 20 Bay Charging Case (RF-DC20) is available.
